THE RULE OF LAW

All organisations, people and the elected government are accountable to the law that is fairly applied and enforced.

INDIVIDUAL LIBERTY

The right to act, believe and express oneself in a manner of one's own choosing. Free from unjust and undue control, coercion or violence.

TOLERANCE AND PEACE

Every person has the right to be treated with dignity and respect regardless of race, sexual orientation, faith, gender, other aspect of identity or personal circumstance

MUTUAL RESPECT

Accept the beliefs and faiths of others. These should be tolerated and not be subject to prejudicial or discriminatory behaviour

DEMOCRACY

The belief of freedom and equality between people. Power is held by elected representatives or directly by the people.
